CLS Oakland County Offices Move to Fantastic Ferndale!

FERNDALE, MI – March 3, 2011 – With all of the great work Community Living Services does to help people with developmental disabilities, the Oakland County office staff has multiplied and outgrown their Berkley office!

Ferndale Mayor Dave Coulter and other city council members and Chamber of Commerce dignitaries will be on hand at a ribbon-cutting ceremony and open house celebrating the new Ferndale location.

The event is Wednesday, March 16th from 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. at the new office, 642 East Nine Mile, Ferndale. There will be live entertainment offered by “Dazzle Do Time” DJ and Rochester Hills resident David Dewitt Taylor. There will also be several small business vendors selling their products including handmade greeting cards, jewelry, T-shirts as well as information on hiring inspirational speakers for seminars. Light refreshments will also be served.

CLS Oakland County Executive Director Annette Downey said, “We are so excited to be a part of the inclusive and close knit Ferndale community and are looking forward to getting to know and partner with many of the wonderful organizations and people in the area.”

Community Living Services is a non-profit organization that promotes inclusion, full citizenship and a self-determined life for people with developmental disabilities. We focus on helping people live as independently as possible. The CLS Oakland County division serves 650 people with developmental disabilities and is funded through the Oakland County Community Mental Health Authority. The CLS Wayne County division serves 3200 children and adults and is funded through the Detroit-Wayne County Community Mental Health Agency. For more information please log onto www.comlivserv.com.
